

LINEN and WHITE SALE!

You can buy Table Linens, Napkins, Tray Cloths, Lunch Cloths, Scarfs and in fact everything we handle in the Linen line at, conservatively speaking, twenty-five per cent less than present prices. The present valuations are not in a single instance inflated to make the sale price seem small, but show the actual advance on these lines.

As is usual on the Tufts programme, we find that the name and work of Frederic Field Dillard hold an important place. Two of the regular programme numbers are the playlets "Sword of Fear" and the lighter but equally well written waltz, "Come Over the Sea." Though not a Tufts man, he has furnished a great number of strong selections for the Tufts club, and now at Tufts programme never appear without at least one from his pen. Among his works previously sung are: "Swords Out for Charlie," "The Kavanagh," "Tack-Too," "You Remind Me, Sweetening," and "The War Song of Gamelhar." The last named was rendered last year and no audience could forget its wild wistful harmony. "Tufts is grateful to Dillard and honors his memory." At the opera house Friday night, February 8, at eight o'clock.
